(a) The villages of Ballintemple, Kilkillage, Ballytynan, and Newtown Anderson, do not now contain 20 houses each; their present population has, therefore, merged in that of the townlands on which they are respectively situated.

(b) The remainder of the town of Sligo is in the parish of St. John; the entire town, including the inmates of Public Institutions, contains 10,693 persons. In 1851, the Poor Law Valuation of the electoral division of Sligo, "under the denomination of streets," amounted to £15,569 5s., as returned by the Clerk of the Union; but the Poor Law Valuation did not distinguish between the portion of the town in the parish of Calry and that in the parish of St. John. The value of these parishes could not, therefore, be stated separately; their united value amounted to £28,218 19s.
